

NEW TITLE

Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003

Ronald A. Franks and David Cobb

Greens Annotated Acts

The Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is the first title to contain the full text of this important Act, expertly annotated with a comprehensive analysis. It offers guidance on the interpretation, implications and application of the new legislative framework in practice. To order this title, please complete the postage-paid, addressed order form on reverse.

Scottish mental health legislation is currently experiencing the most significant transformation since the 1980s. This is the first annotated version of the new Act since this more complex legislative structure was created.

This title is an excellent source of reference for criminal, civil and private client practitioners, as well as local authorities, health services, social workers and members of the police and prison services.

Taking account of all developments and the implications of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003, this text provides practical section-by-section commentary guiding you through the law.

Ronald A. Franks is a partner and solicitor with Legal Services Agency, Glasgow.

David Cobb is an Advocate and former Head of Legal Services, Central Regional Council.
