

Need advice? Can't access 9 – 5 services? We can help!

Two of Glasgow's new advice partnerships run a free drop-in surgery on Thursday evenings for people in need of advice on:

- debt
- money advice
- homelessness
- welfare benefits
- employment rights
- eviction
- mortgages / repossession
- mental health legal problems
- incapacity legal issues
- rent arrears

Advisers will provide:

- An initial assessment of your query
- Information and advice on how to resolve a problem
- Access to specialist services to assist you
- Access to legal assistance

Thursday evenings from 4.45 – 6.45pm

3rd Floor, Fleming House, 134 Renfrew Street, Glasgow G3 6ST
(near GFT Cinema in Rose Street and the rear entrance to Boots off Sauchiehall Street).

The surgery is staffed by:

- Shelter - the housing and homelessness charity
- Glasgow Central CAB – providers of advice on any topic
- Legal Services Agency – a law centre providing advice and representation

For further info contact Legal Services Agency on 0141 353 3354 or www.lsa.org.uk

The Citywide Consortium is a consortium of advice agencies funded by Glasgow City Council. Its members are Shelter, Move On, Glasgow Central CAB and Legal Services Agency. North Glasgow Advice Services (NGAS) is also a consortium funded by Glasgow City Council. Its members are Maryhill Citizens Advice Bureau, Sunnyside Advice Centre, Glasgow Central CAB and LSA.

The initial contact address for both Consortia is Legal Services Agency offices at 3rd Floor, Fleming House, 134 Renfrew Street, Glasgow G3 6ST.